Car Wrecked on Bridge Approach in Avoiding Crash With Theatre Party

ONE MAN NEAR DEATH.

Richly Dressed Woman Hurried Away in Another Auto and Her Name Refused.

A big racing automobile coming from the Bronx shot across the Lenox avenue bridge near One Hundred and Forty-fifth street at 2 o'clock this morning, and as it struck the approach on the south end headed for a limousine bearing a theatre party going east.

In response to the chauffeur's desperate efforts the racer swerved aside and darted toward the curb. The two front wheels hit the bridge promenade and went over the six-inch elevation. The rear wheels skidded, and the force tore one from the axle. The two front wheels burst as the machine came to a sudden stop, and the three occupants were hurled against the bridge approach parapet and lay unconscious.

The racer was driven by a man describing himself as Arthur McLean of No. 61 St. Nicholas avenue, who claims to be the owner. With him on the front seat was a woman richly dressed and wearing jewels. On the funny seat in the rear was a man who afterward described himself as Abraham Weiss, thirty, a waiter at the Pelham Bay Inn.

The sound of the crash and the bursting tires brought the fire tender, several persons from a coal yard nearby and the occupants of the limousine. Weiss was found to be the worst injured. He was taken to the Harlem Hospital suffering from a possible fracture of the skull and internal injuries. Besides many cuts and bruises.

The celebrity with which the woman was got out of the way amidst the police. At first she was unconscious. Stricken about the scene of the accident were several of her "rats" and puffs and a few of the feathers in her hat. She was hurried into another automobile that came up and whisked away as soon as she had recovered her senses. Weiss had been thrown with such violence he narrowly missed going entirely over the parapet to the street forty feet below. It was only after the police had threatened him with arrest that McLean gave his name. The name of the woman was not learned. The number of the racer 4238, N. Y.

The limousine that came near being demolished by the race was that of Jacob Siegel of No. 125 Fulton avenue, the Bronx, driven by George Smith, a chauffeur of the same address. Two several men and women in it had attended a theatre party. After seeing that they were of no assistance to the police they went on to the Bronx. At the hospital it was said that Weiss was in a serious condition and that his recovery is doubtful. The grade where the accident occurred is steep and part of the street is torn up for car tracks, leaving less than the customary room for passing autos.

CONCESSIONS ON BOTH SIDES RESULT IN AGREEMENT.

The foregoing division of the traction territory of the city has been agreed upon by the Public Service Commission, and three members of the Board of Estimate, according to one of the members of the joint conference. No information was forthcoming as to the fate of the Fourth Avenue subway in Brooklyn, but the inference was that it goes to the B. R. T.

Concessions on both sides. It was said, had resulted in a unanimous report, which would be presented Thursday to the Board of Estimate.

The traction conference will also recommend, it is said, a physical connection, and a traffic agreement, between the B. R. T. system and the lines of William G. McGowan's Hudson and Manhattan Railroad Company under the North River.

Whether the Interborough will be willing to share its Manhattan field with the B. R. T. is a question. Its various agents around City Hall declared this morning that under no circumstances would that company back down in this respect. As for the B. R. T., it would be quite willing to take its allotted share of the traction pie, and retire with more than it ever expected to get out of the dish.

After the report is presented to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, it will have to be voted upon. Its acceptance kills for all time to come an independent subway system owned and operated by the City of New York.

DAY PORTRAIT PAYMENT AUTHORIZED BY HAY.

Artist Got $850 Out of $2,450, but Where Remaining $1,600 Went Still a Mystery.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Senator Root was unable to give the House Committee, which is investigating the State Department, much information today on the disbursement of the $2,450, approved for the payment of a picture of former Secretary Day, for which Artist Rosenthal received the $850. While Secretary of State, Senator Root said he had the matter investigated. It resulted only in the finding of a paper showing Secretary Hay's approval of the payment of $2,450 from the Emergency of "Secret" fund of the department. Payments from this fund were made upon the approval of the Secretary without receipts or vouchers.

Senator Root told the committee he was convinced former Chief Clerk Michael, now Consul General at Calcutta, had reported that the difference of $1,600 had been expended under the direction of the Secretary. Hay's purposes of will it be not be desired to leave a record.

The committee may never learn where the remaining $1,600 went. It was said at the State Department today that Secretary Knox probably would not testify before the committee on the subject.

Hugh McIntosh can dig up to meet me. "Will I keep in training on the subject?" Well, I'm figuring on taking things kinder easy, but if they ask me to perform at the ship's concert I will be very glad to oblige by making a speech and boxing a few rounds with my sparring partners, Mohahan and Clutter. Now, I don't want to overdo it, and I know what to do. And I ain't going to meet Jeffries over there either, 'cause he's on his way back."

McIntosh put in at this point to say he was arranging an endurance race between Johnson in an automobile and Glenn Curtiss in an aeroplane, from Sheepshead Bay to Hawthorne, from Chicago, to take place in the late summer or early fall, and about this time the shore bell rang.

Among the fellow travellers of the Johnsons were Prince Francis von und zu Liechtenstein, Baron von Fonda of San Francisco, O. M. von Bernuth, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Thompson, Miss Margaret Thompson, Col. and Mrs. William Brooks Blake of Philadelphia, Mr. Frederick L. Levensburg, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore C. Janeway and Mrs. Edward G. Janeway, widow of the famous surgeon.

ALDERMEN CONSIDERING EVENING WORLD'S PARK PLAN.

(Specially photographed for The Evening World.)

GREATER SEASIDE PARK FOR THE POOR ASSURED BY VOTE OF ALDERMEN

Fifth street and Ocean Parkway, and also a triangular piece of beach containing about three acres on the east side of the Parkway.

"We have witnessed during the last few years real estate speculators reclaiming hundreds of acres of land along Gravesend Bay, Sheepshead Bay, Jamaica Bay and along the shore of Rockaway. At the present time the owners of Manhattan Beach are reclaiming, at a reasonable cost, the many acres of shore front which were washed away by the action of the tide at the same time that the thirty-six acres of shore lands were washed away."

REV. WILLIAM N. HUBBELL, Ministers Temple, Manhattan.

Ready to Do All in His Power to Further Plan.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

The idea of the greater seaside park is worthy and commendable. It will be of a great benefit to thousands of poor women and children in the outlying parts of the city. It would certainly give me great satisfaction to see the idea materialize, and I am ready to do what is in my power for the furtherance of the project.

REV. JAMES P. O'BRIEN, St. Rita of Cascia, The Bronx.

As real estate men are able to make millions of dollars by filling in land along the ocean, we believe it is the duty of the city to reclaim those portions of Sea Breeze avenue and the concourse lands now under water. For a number of years past this portion of the shore which belongs to the city and which should be enjoyed by the public, has been a source of large revenue to private interests because of the inaction of the city in caring for and developing it.

"The extent of the shore front now owned by the city is about 2,500 feet. The addition of the proposed park area adjoining this city property covers about 1,200 feet of shore front, which together make nearly 4,000 feet that could be developed into a fine seaside park."

PRESENT PUBLIC BEACH IS CROWDED DAILY.

"There is more necessity now than ever before for an addition to the present beach, as the large bathing pavilion now in course of construction by the city of New York will bring many additional thousands of people to this public beach, which on our city fathers' day is already crowded to its full capacity.

"We believe it is the duty of the city authorities to secure all available property along the shore front that is at all suitable for park purposes. The fact that this beach area adjoining the present park lands seems to make it imperative that the city should acquire it as an addition to the park. There can be no question as to the public need for such park space."

"The matter of seaside parks has been the subject of much debate in the Board of Public Improvement since the early years of consolidation of Greater New York, when the entire waterfront from Sea Gate to Brighton Beach was proposed.

"We would, therefore, respectfully recommend the acquisition of this area south of Surf avenue and extending from West Fifth street to West Tenth street, which contains about twenty-four acres."

"We would also suggest that the Board of Aldermen recommend to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment that an engineer be employed to draw up plans and report upon the best method and the approximate cost for reclaiming the city land which has been washed away by the tides. If the engineer reports that desirable results may be obtained at an expenditure that will not be prohibitive, steps should be taken to reclaim and develop this land and to acquire the new proposed lands as well."

MORE CLERGYMEN INDORSE PLAN FOR BIG OCEAN PARK.

Letters are being received by The Evening World from clergymen all over the greater city uniting in favor of more beach for the people at Coney Island. They agree that a Greater Seaside Park would improve the morals of the people's playground. They support the project of the extension of a clean, beautiful area owned and controlled by the city as the best means of fighting the brothel and the dive. This advantage, they contend, would of itself compensate for the taking of the beach property and improving it as a public park.

Yesterday a large installment of these letters was published, and more are presented today.

To the Editor of The Evening World:

An excellent idea, which would be the advantage of the people and the city, is the project of the extension of a clean, beautiful area owned and controlled by the city as the best means of fighting the brothel and the dive. This advantage, they contend, would of itself compensate for the taking of the beach property and improving it as a public park.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 6.—The New York Giants, proof leaders in the National League race, invaded Pittsburgh today, coming for an important series of four games against the Pirates at Forbes Field, starting this afternoon. "Bugs" Raymond did the twirling for the Gothamites in the opening battle. Manager Clarke used "Lefty" Liffeld, who has all his best wits available for the present series, and Liffeld, Adams, Camnitz and Steele should make it interesting for the visitors. Of course, McGraw is just as well fixed for slabbats as Pittsburgh, so that most of the games here will be a struggle between pitcher's battles, full of interest and excitement.

Devore started the game with a hard smash, going out, Liffeld to McKee, who was placed on first by Manager Clarke on account of Hunter's poor batting. Fletcher could not connect with the curve that Liffeld bent over and fanned. Snodgrass hit by Byrne and a spoon throw to McKee, who beat the runner.

Carey hit a high fly to infield that Fletcher got. Murray made a wonderful catch of Byrne's long fly deep right center, the hit was a home run tag on it when it left his bat. McKee, who was out, Raymond to Merkle.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Bill Dahlen and his Trolley Dodgers made their 1911 debut at the Cubs' park this afternoon. The Cubs are planning to make good use of their opportunity while the Superbas are here to climb back into first place. The fact that the Giants are facing the Pirates is comforting for the Cubs and strengthens their belief that they will get back in the lead by the end of the week.

The Brooklyn team came up from St. Louis this morning and all of the men were more than glad to get here, for they have suffered from the intense heat in the Mound City the last four days.
